Key Terms

- Fund distribution date* is the date on which the Excess of Reportable Income over Distributions is deemed as being received by relevant participants for UK tax purposes.
For the reporting period 1 January 2018 to 31 December 2018, the fund distribution date is 30 June 2019 which a UK individual relevant participant is taxable on in the tax year 6 April 2019 - 5 April 2020.
You should ensure that you seek personal tax advice when completing your tax return.
- ISIN code* is short for International Securities Identification Number; a unique security identifier of the fund share class.
- Income distributed per share* is the total per share amount of income the fund distributed to shareholders in respect of the reporting period.
You should ensure that you refer to any distribution notices received to ensure that you include the correct distributions in your tax return.
- Ex-date on which distribution was declared* is the effective date of the dividend payment (i.e. date on which the fund value dropped by the dividend amount).
- Excess of reportable income over distributions* is the amount of income reported per share in excess of cash distributions paid to shareholders in respect of the profits of the period.
- Investor average equalisation adjustment* – Vanguard operates an equalisation policy for Vanguard Investment Series plc. The equalisation amount is relevant to investors who have made an initial purchase of fund units during its reporting period and continued to hold an interest as at the period end. These investors should be able to use the average equalisation factors to calculate an equalisation amount which may be off-set against any excess reportable income.
Please note that this disclosure does not constitute tax advice and any investor who is unsure of their tax position in relation to these amounts should contact their tax adviser.
- Where the Reporting Fund holds more than 60% of its investments in debt securities (or similar) the share class is a Bond Fund and the distribution should be treated as interest income in the hands of the investor.
Where the Reporting Fund does not hold more than 60% of its investments in debt securities (or similar) the share class is an Equity Fund and the distribution should be treated as a dividend income in the hands of the investor.

You should ensure that you seek personal tax advice when completing your tax return.
